The Big Interview

Charles sat in the cafeteria with five other students, waiting for Ms. Swanson to interview all of them. Ms. Swanson, the seventh-grade science teacher, was looking for a lab helper. Charles' palms were sweaty and his face felt hot. He wondered if his face was red – and if anyone would notice.

As he prepared for his interview, Charles reviewed a set of index cards with notes that he had made earlier. On each card, he had written an answer to a question that Ms. Swanson might ask. "The emergency eyewash station is not a place to get a drink of water," he quietly read aloud from one card.

Charles decided to check out the other candidates. Nearby, a girl with dark red hair was shuffling her own set of index cards. He watched as she tore a card into tiny pieces and stuffed the pieces into a pocket. Suddenly she looked up at Charles. "Are you nervous?" she asked.

"No, I'm not nervous – not at all," Charles stammered. "What about you?"

"Uh, no, me neither," the girl responded.

At that moment, Ms. Swanson appeared. "Charles Locke?" she called out.
